

Grant Awards

National Institutes of Health (subcontract pilot project from $22 million grant housed at Boston College; NIHMD009479; S. Petersen, PI/PD; 7/1/2016-6/30/2018; $66,345), “Amplifying Voices: Development of a Multi--Institutional Model of Mutual Cluster Mentoring of Biomedical/Biobehavioral Women Faculty from Underrepresented Group”.

National Institutes of Health (NIGMS; R25GM099649), “UMass Amherst Initiative for Maximizing Student Development” (S. Petersen, PI/PD; D. Fisher, S.Powers, Co-PIs; 12/1/2011-11/30/2017; $2,330,097). This project provides stage-specific mentoring, funding and professional development activities to doctoral students in STEM disciplines.

National Institutes of Health (NIGMS; R25GM08624), “UMass Amherst PREP” (S.L. Petersen, PI/PD, co-PI L. Thompson; 5/01/13-4/30/17; Total costs $1,499,494). This project is a competitive renewal of the previous PREP grant and funds one-year internships for underrepresented minorities to prepare them for graduate programs in biomedical research.

National Institutes of Health/NICHD (R21; S. Petersen, PI), “The Role of Cugbp2 in E2 and TCDD Regulation of Apoptosis in Developing Brain” ($611,138 total costs; 3/1/2015-2/28/2017)

National Institutes of Health/NICHD (R21; S. Petersen, PI), “Dioxin and estradiol regulation of proteins through Cugbp2” ($625,000; total costs; scored at 1st percentile)